GENERAL EXPLANATION

Abbreviations used throughout this volume:

d - died; daughter	b - born
dau - daughter	s - son
inf - infant	w or wf - wife
lic - license date	hus - husband

Dates in the first column are usually those of birth, in the second column those of death. In some instances the age is given in both first and/or second columns; it may be easily ascertained which is meant.

Age is reckoned thus: 7-8-20 is 7 yr 8 mo 20 da.

Dates are: 1870-4-5 is April 5, 1870
3-6-1870 is March 6, 1870

Much care has been taken to check the records but the researcher must take into consideration the possibility of errors in copying from original sources. Spellings by different records varies. We have copied the names as given to us and it is hoped no typographical errors exist. Some differences in spelling which may seem to be typographical errors are as sent to us and so copied.

In searching for names in the index look in second column as well as in first column of the body material.
Infants are not listed in the index but are found in the volume proper.

The Wright County material is not indexed but is alphabetically arranged in the volume.

Typists: Mrs. Lorraine West Tobias, Atlantic, Iowa.
Mrs. Myrtle Hardenbergh Miller, Atlantic.

OLD LYNNVILLE CEMETERY

JASPER COUNTY IOWA

This is an old Quaker cemetery about one mile east of Lynnville. The graves seem to have been made one after the other according to the date of death and not according to family; the children were all buried in rows alone each with a small slab stone. This graveyard is well taken care of.

The records were gathered by Mrs. F. R. Porter of Grinnell, Iowa.

Buried Oakland cem.*

In Oakland Cemetery, Fort Dodge I copied very carefully. (From Letter Joe Fowler, Omaha, Neb. 12398)

"Tenzah V. Sherman Aug. 26, 1839 - April 24, 1862." (She was wife of Charles Sherman)

"Kate M. November 1860 - April 1862. These names on monument. A marker says "Tenzah and Kate."

They were drowned while crossing Burne river. She was a dau. of Cornelius Hazard Vincent born April 20, 1813 d. Feb. 28, 1859 and Luinda Feb. 8, 1814 - March 17, 1885.

On monument "Julia Sept. 1859 - Dec. 1859." Evidently an elder child of Tenzah Vincent-Sherman.

On same lot "Amarette V. Sherman 1838-1926." She was a sister to Tenzah, and married George B. Sherman 1833-1909. By them lies Ray M. Sherman 1874-1919.

you have Tenzah and Amarette in marriage records.

Tenzah's mother-in-law, Julia Sherman born died April 24, 1862, stone says "drowned while crossing the Burne river." She & her husband, S. M. in another lot.
Wells

On that Wells lot, in Oakland.

Maria B. Wells 1833-1924. (She was Miss Wells)

Harriet Phelps Wells 1836-1904

William Buel Wells 1840-1915

WINNEBAGO COUNTY IOWA

Winnebago County is located in the northern tier of counties bordering on the Minnesota line, in the north central part.

The county was organized in 1857.

The first settlers were George Thomas 1855 on Rice Lake; John Mabon on east side of Lime Creek now the site of Forest city, 1855; J. Gilchrist, J. C. Bonar and P. Tennis, 1855.

In 1856 in the southeast part of the county came Henry Allen, Robert Clark, John S. Blowers, A. T. Cole, James L. Witt, Daniel Martin, Ira Plummer, Robert Stephens. In the fall of 1856 Samuel Tennis, Archibald Murray, William Gilbert, settled in the northern part of the county.

In 1857 the Norwegian settlement: Christian Anderson, John Iverson, John Johnson, H. J. Knudsen, Colburn Larson, Louis Nelson, and Oliver Peterson. No more came until 1865.

In 1867 "Coon Grove" was settled by John Millington.

From Atlas of 1875 A. T. Andreas.

Compiled by Myrtle Hardenbergh Miller
1937

These records were secured by Mrs. Marie L. Swanner (H. E.) of Mason City.

This cemetery we were told is the oldest in the vicinity. It has no care except to mow the weeds. Two plots were fenced in but have no stones. It is on the Charlson farm and part of the cabin lies near. Most of the graves are said to be those of the family. Only four stones could we find.
